HC to Delhi govt: Can't swing like a pendulum

PRESSTRUST OF INDIA New Delhi, May 12

A GOVERNMENT CANNOT swing like a pendulum from one side to the other and there has to be a sense of equilibrium, the Delhi High Court told the Delhi government when it said it was sometimes forced to recall its actions as a result of judicial intervention. The Delhi government, during the hearing of a plea regarding overcharging by private hospitals, said it can initiate audits of these institutions and also take strict action, but the court should not stay the same if any of them "come crying".

The government said recently it had issued an order that nursing homes without

To this, a bench of Justices Vipin Sanghi and Rekha Palli said,"There has to be a sense of equilibrium. The government cannot swing like a pendulum from one side to another."

Explaining what it meant by the observation, the Bench said when the nursing homes issue had come before it, the court had said the government had allowed them to function till now and in the midst of the pandemic if they were asked to let go of their patients, especially those suffering from Covid-19, such people would have nowhere to go as beds were scarce.

The court said all it had told the Delhi government was that it could have asked the nursing homes not to admit patients on second and above floors oncethe patients already there were discharged with a clean bill of health.

Waiting for members to start talks on TRIPS waiver, tech transfer: WTO chief

THE WTO IS waiting for member countries to sit across the table and negotiate an outcome on the issues of technology transfer and the proposal of India and South Africa for temporary waiver of certain provisions from TRIPS agreement to deal with the Covid-19 pandemic, its chief Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala said on Wednesday.

The director-general of the World Trade Organization (WT-O) said the pronouncement by the US about the waiver and also by New Zealand and the willingness of EU to come to the table, gives a fillip to the effort to try to bring countries to table and talk. In October 2020, India and

South Africa submitted a proposal suggesting a waiver for all WTO members on the implementation of certain provisions of the TRIPS pact in relation to the prevention, containment or treatment of Covid. -PTI
